

Free E-Learning Resources

Children

Books and Stories-

RBDigital is the library's e-audio platform. Audiobooks are free to download with a library card. If you need help setting up your account, please call the library. <https://twinfallsid.rbdigital.com/>

Overdrive is the library's e-audio platform. Audiobooks are free to download with a library card. If you need help setting up your account, please call the library. <https://id8.overdrive.com/>

TumbleBooks is a wonderful database of animated children's books that has been made free in light of the COVID 19 pandemic.

https://www.tumblebooklibrary.com/auto_login.aspx?U=tumble735&P=books

AudioBookCloud is a database of audiobooks for all ages. It has been made free in light of the COVID 19 pandemic. <https://www.audiobookcloud.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6>

Storyline Online is a free storytime site where beloved picture books are read aloud by celebrities. <https://www.storylineonline.net/>

The Kennedy Center is hosting lunch doodle classes with our pal Mo Willems.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RmzjCPQv3y8&t=7s>

E-Learning-

Tutor.com is a valuable resource year-round with your library card. It has quizzes, tutoring, and instruction for kids in elementary through high school. <https://lhh.tutor.com/Landing.aspx>

TumbleMath is a database of math picture books that has been made free in light of the COVID 19 pandemic. <https://www.tumblemath.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6>

World Book has given Idaho residents free access to all of their e-learning materials. This includes lessons for young children, elementary-aged children, and middle school students-

<https://www.worldbookonline.com/training/distance-learning/distance-learning.htm>

New American History offers free history lessons to children in grades 4 and up.

<https://learn.newamericanhistory.org/>

123Homeschool4Me offers lots of worksheets and activities to keep your kiddos busy.

<https://www.123homeschool4me.com/home-school-free-printables/>

Accessibyte has made all of its apps free for the duration of the COVID 19 pandemic.

<https://www.accessibyte.com/stay-safe>

All Kids Network has lots of worksheets and activities to keep your kiddos busy.

<https://www.allkidsnetwork.com/>

Arcademics offers games designed to help children build math skills in grades k-12.

<https://www.arcademics.com/games/grand-prix>

Bedtime Math offers lots of different math activities for you to do with your little one. Their goal is to make bedtime math as common as a bedtime story. <http://bedtimemath.org/>

Discovery k-12 is an online homeschooling program that offers free accounts to students.

<http://discoveryk12.com/dk12/>

DreamScape is a reading game for kids in grades 2-8 and has a temporary free trial.

<https://www.squigglepark.com/dreamscape/>

PBS has a wealth of educational resources including this Everyday Learning series for children of varying ages. <https://idahoptv.pbslearningmedia.org/collection/everyday-learning/>

Fluency and Fitness is a site that combines classroom learning with physical fitness. There's usually a fee to join, but they are offering 3 free weeks of instruction in light of the COVID 19 pandemic. <https://fluencyandfitness.com/>

Khan Academy is a homeschooling resource that is free of charge.

<https://www.khanacademy.org/>

Walkabouts is another activity-based learning resource that is offering a free trial.

<https://getwalkabouts.com/>

Teens

TeenBookCloud is a database of teen e-books with lots of graphic novels. It has been made free in light of the COVID 19 pandemic.

<https://www.teenbookcloud.com/autologin.aspx?U=tumble2020&P=A3b5c6>

Tutor.com has many educational resources for all ages, including study guides and test prep.

<https://lhh.tutor.com/?ProgramGUID=c4a0c636-313e-4337-a3d4-172924bab7c7#>

Freerice is a non-profit site that give you vocabulary questions and donates 10 grains of rice to the World Food Programme for every answer you get right.

<https://freerice.com/#/english-vocabulary/1381>

TED-Ed is TED's youth and education initiative. It has videos on everything from Egyptian mythology, to the building of the Brooklyn Bridge, to what makes neon signs glow. Each video includes discussion questions and other resources related to that topic.

<https://ed.ted.com/>

Google Arts and Culture: Are you a fan of art and museums? Google Arts and Culture allows students to virtually explore thousands of artworks and artifacts provided by over 1,000 international museums, galleries, and institutions from all around the globe.

<https://artsandculture.google.com/>

Teen Ink: Teen Ink is a national magazine written by teens for teens. Students can submit their own work and appreciate what their peers write.

<https://www.teenink.com/>

ADULTS

Learning Express from lili.org has test prep for college and career readiness, all free to Idaho citizens. It also includes GED, ACT, SAT, ASVAB, GRE as well as tests for certification for many different vocations, including nursing, teaching, real estate, civil service, law enforcement, and more.

GCF LearnFree at gcflearnfree.org offers free tutorials in technology, software use (including Office products and Quikbooks), core skills, life skills, and career planning.