

Twin Falls Public Library Educator Card Application

Educators working at an educational facility may apply for the Educator Library card. Up to 100 items may be checked out to the card. Educator Cards will not accrue normal overdue fines, but materials are still expected to be returned by the due dates given. Materials checked out to an Educator Card should be for the classroom or professional development. Materials for personal use should be checked out to a personal library card. Educators must provide proof of employment at an educational facility in order to be eligible for the Educator Card. Proof of employment must be provided at the beginning of each school year (no earlier than August 1st). Educator Cards will expire on May 31 of each year.

 Extensions may be made on a case by case basis at the discretion of the library for Educators in need of services during June & July.*
